the impact of TOGETHER

Jewish Federation of Cleveland

ANNUAL REPORT

2018 Annual Report
About Federation

The Jewish Federation of Cleveland is the only organization in Cleveland that focuses on the health and vitality of the entire Jewish community. For 115 years, the Federation has created the critical scale necessary to drive meaningful social change and provide relief in times of crisis in ways no one person or organization could do alone. As Jewish Cleveland’s hub for innovative solutions and collaborative services, the Federation is able to change and improve lives in Cleveland, Israel, and around the world.
To our friends and neighbors,

The power and potential of the “Impact of Together” can be seen clearly across all aspects of the Federation’s work in 2018. Because of you, we continue to change and improve lives in Cleveland, Israel, and beyond. On the following pages are just some examples of how—together—we care for one another, prepare for the future, share our perspectives, and repair our world. By harnessing the incredible dedication and compassion that permeates all corners of Jewish Cleveland, we are able to live in one of the most vibrant and caring Jewish communities in the world.

We achieved many milestones in the past year. Early in 2018, we rolled-out an integrated and inclusive new growth plan that focuses on making Jewish Cleveland even more engaging for everyone who seeks to live “Jewishly.” The goal is to help individuals and families feel a deepened connection to Jewish life; part of a diverse and extended Jewish family; and confident participating in Jewish events, activities, and programs that suit them. We’re excited about finding new ways to make people feel even more at home in Jewish Cleveland.

During the year, we ran a record-setting Campaign for Jewish Needs—our annual fundraising effort. In addition to raising more than $32 million to fund a wide array of critical programs and services in the coming year, our community increased the number of gifts for the first time in a decade! This definitive step forward is further evidence of the strength and passion of our local Jewish community.

Finally, in December, we thanked Stephen H. Hoffman, our Federation’s president who retired at year end, for his innumerable contributions to the Jewish people. Steve’s impact on the local and global Jewish community cannot be overstated. During his 35-year tenure as president, he elevated every single facet of our work to enable us to anticipate the ever-changing needs of our community here and abroad. We are blessed to move into this next chapter of our organization’s storied history with an impeccable reputation, a clear vision for the future, and a strong financial footing to support our growth plan.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees and professional staff at the Federation, we thank our caring donors and talented beneficiary agency teams for their unwavering commitment to our community. Thank you for your continued support of Jewish Cleveland.

THAT’S THE IMPACT OF TOGETHER
We help feed the hungry, comfort the sick, aid the elderly, shelter the homeless, and support those in need or with disabilities — wherever they are in the world. We advocate for the vulnerable and fight for social justice. We also invest significant resources in preventing, preparing for, and responding to potential security threats to our community.

Caring for the Elderly
The Jewish Federation of Cleveland invests significant time and resources each year into the care of our community’s elderly. We provide an essential lifeline to food, medical care, and social activities for hundreds of thousands of elderly here and around the world.

- Aging with dignity: We help more than 775 Holocaust survivors locally and over 90,000 impoverished elderly Jews in places like the former Soviet Union with basic needs such as food, medicine, and home care.
- Providing comprehensive care: Award-winning health and wellness facilities like Menorah Park and Montefiore offer comprehensive services to assist individuals through the aging process, while also celebrating Jewish customs and traditions.
- Bringing conversation and companionship: Volunteers with the Federation’s IMPACT! initiative work alongside Jewish Family Service Association (JFSA) to assist older adult Russian-Jewish immigrants in our community who have a desire to improve their conversational English.

Confronting the Opioid Epidemic
The Jewish Federation of Cleveland recently launched a new, coordinated effort to provide integrated resources for families caught in the grip of this medical crisis in order to reduce stigma that isolates family members and prevents them from asking for help. Cleveland is the first Jewish community in the country to come together as one to break the silence.

- Reaching the community: Through a series of community-wide events that reached more than 800 community members across 13 synagogues during Shabbat services, we were able to break the silence around opioid misuse and addiction in the Jewish community.
- Providing resources for our clergy: By organizing instructional workshops with national experts in substance abuse for local clergy and Jewish organization leaders, we are empowering them to plan for those struggling within their congregations.
- Educating our children about the dangers of addiction: With the assistance of our beneficiary agency, Bellefaire JCB, we are able to bring powerful substance abuse prevention training to our community’s Jewish day schools and camps.
ADDRESSING ALZHEIMER’S DISEASE AND DEMENTIA
The number of individuals who will suffer from Alzheimer’s disease and dementia is expected to nearly double in the next decade. To address the needs of this growing population, the Federation formed an Alzheimer's/Dementia Task Force that is leading the community’s coordinated response.

- Supporting families navigating dementia care: Hiring a dementia care coordinator to help families with particularly difficult cases throughout the progression of the disease.
- Providing research: Helping JFSA to obtain a $1 million federal grant from the Department of Health and Human Services, which is critical to launching this new dementia care navigation in Jewish Cleveland.

KEEPING OUR COMMUNITY SAFE AND WELCOMING
Security is no longer an option. The Federation is the driving force working to keep our community safe.

- Creating the Community Security Alliance (CSA): A newly launched security training program for Jewish Cleveland that teaches employees and volunteers at Jewish facilities and houses of worship advanced situational awareness that is critical to identifying potential security threats.
- Delivering Project Safe Classroom backpacks: Designed and distributed 550 backpacks to Jewish Cleveland classrooms that contain medical and emergency supplies, as well as safety equipment.
- Increasing security in Jewish Cleveland: In the face of increasing anti-Semitism, we are increasing the level of security provided throughout Jewish Cleveland, especially at local early childhood/preschools, educational institutions, synagogues, and synagogue schools – from increasing the number of security officers to doubling the number of mobile patrols in our neighborhoods, and more.
Prepare for the Future

We ensure the long-term health and vitality of our diverse community. We provide the critical strategic planning and oversight needed to make life better today and for generations to come. We provide a wide range of educational programming for all ages which celebrates Jewish values and traditions. We also develop the next generation of leaders through mentoring, teaching, and hands-on experiences.

HELPING KIDS THRIVE IN CLEVELAND AND ISRAEL
Federation devotes significant resources toward providing the emotional and educational support our children need in order to become healthy, self-sufficient adults.

- Supporting students with special needs: The Segula program provides personalized, one-on-one support for Cleveland Jewish day school students with special needs in and out of the classroom—from preschool through high school.
- Supporting mentors who support our kids: By connecting Youth Futures mentors, who counsel more than 12,000 at-risk children and their families across Israel, with local Cleveland organizations, we enable these mentors to exchange leading-edge strategies and tactics for helping our vulnerable youth.
- Addressing educational needs in Israel’s periphery: To combat dropping math and science test scores, we are launching an innovative STEM (science, technology, engineering, math) education curriculum to help ensure Israel’s reputation as a "start-up" nation continues to grow and that the country builds and maintains a competitive future workforce.

ENGAGING THE NEXT GENERATION OF LEADERS
A critical component of our work is developing the next generation of Jewish leaders – from hands-on training and mentoring to creative community engagement opportunities to relationship-building experiences with peers.

- Expanding Young Leadership Division: Through an Endowment Fund grant, the Young Leadership Division—the key pipeline for developing leaders for the Jewish Cleveland community—has welcomed more than 2,200 unique participants to engage in philanthropic, volunteer networking, and social opportunities.
- Supporting Jewish doers: Our newly launched 248 program will connect young professionals from Israel and Cleveland so they can explore issues facing world Jewry today and pool their creative resources in order to develop solutions to communal challenges.
- Creating a legacy of Hebrew language educators: In celebration of 35 years of distinguished leadership, The Stephen H. Hoffman Endowed Professorship of Hebrew Language at Case Western Reserve University and The Stephen H. Hoffman Hebrew Fund at the Jewish Federation of Cleveland is being established to create a legacy of professors, scholars, and educators of Hebrew language at Case Western Reserve University and in Greater Cleveland through experience-based learning.
CULTIVATING JEWISH IDENTITY
The Federation strives to bring fulfilling Jewish experiences to unaffiliated families and interfaith couples living in our community so future generations can thrive. We also help renew Jewish life in places like our sister city of St. Petersburg, Russia, where Judaism was forbidden during 70 years of Communist rule.

- Connecting interfaith families to Judaism and one another: jHUB has connected more than 1,800 interfaith families to Jewish life in Greater Cleveland and to each other through Shabbat programs, casual gatherings, and more formal workshops for couples and their families.

- Bringing Jewish summer camp to all: The Michael & Anita Siegal One Happy Camper Program provides grants of up to $1,000 for first-time Jewish overnight campers. Additionally, The Myers Campership grant brings over 100 low-income, unaffiliated children to camp each year in what has been a proven critical first step in a lasting Jewish identity—attending a Jewish overnight camp.

- Revitalizing Jewish life in Russia: The Lehava Leadership Program helps to secure a Jewish future in the Former Soviet Union by developing St. Petersburg young adults so they can foster an organized, vibrant, and self-sustaining community.

Our Perspectives

We bridge cultural divides, foster mutual respect, and build collaborative relationships. We provide the education and tools needed to stand up and speak out on behalf of Israel and the Jewish people. We deepen connections to Israel through personal experiences and programs that celebrate our Jewish homeland. We create mutually beneficial collaborations between business and civic leaders in Israel and Greater Cleveland.

CREATING STRONG CONNECTIONS
The Jewish Federation of Cleveland actively engages with a wide range of ethnic and religious groups throughout Greater Cleveland in an effort to create better cultural awareness and understanding between neighbors.

- Connecting through caring: Throughout the year, young leaders from the Federation make connections across the community through the Young Leadership Division’s volunteer initiative “YLDay of Caring.” Recently, this cohort joined volunteers of all ages from the African-American community to celebrate each other's heritage through a community beautification project at the Cleveland Cultural Gardens.
- Celebrating our shared earth: Each Tu B’Shevat, the Federation co-hosts an interfaith Seder for the Greater Cleveland community that welcomes guests from all faiths—Jewish, Christian, Muslim, and many more. Events like these serve as an important reminder of the values we all share.
- Combating the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) movement and hatred: In the face of growing anti-Semitism, programs like the Federation’s Israel Advocacy Fellows are critical to neutralizing the hateful rhetoric that is permeating our colleges and universities. Through this program, young adult professionals explore the complexities of Israel and learn how to talk about Israel with their peers.

REMEMBERING OUR PAST
As the population of Holocaust survivors continues to decline, we must remember their stories. To ensure our history is never forgotten, the Federation honors the past through educational programming for all ages.

- Keeping the stories alive: Inspired by the Israeli tradition, Zikaron BaSalon (“Remembrance in the Living Room”), Jewish Cleveland young adults meet with Holocaust survivors in small, intimate settings and listen to their stories and engage in moving conversations about the importance of keeping the memory of the Holocaust alive.
- Bringing awareness through art: To help younger generations begin to appreciate this painful piece of our history, Cleveland-area middle and high school students are invited to use visual arts and creative writing to honor Yom Hashoah V’Hagvurah, Jewish Cleveland’s “Commemoration of the Holocaust & Heroism.”

FORGING PERSONAL TIES TO ISRAEL
In order to forge an enduring connection to Israeli culture with the next generation, the Federation brings Israel to Cleveland—and Cleveland to Israel—through different hands-on experiences and programs.

- Welcoming Israeli emissaries (ShinShinim/ Shalicha): A select group of young Israeli volunteers, called ShinShinim, spend one year in Cleveland teaching high schoolers about Israel. We also regularly sponsor an Israeli Shalicha, who brings Israeli programs to young adults in our community.
- Celebrating Israel at 70: In 2018, we curated a year-long celebration to commemorate Israel’s 70th birthday, featuring guest lecturers, theater and musical performances, art exhibits, and the community’s first-ever “IsraelFest!”, an outdoor carnival for the entire family.
- Experiencing Israel: In order to foster a deeper connection between Cleveland and Israel, we create unique opportunities for Clevelanders of all ages and backgrounds to explore and experience Israel first-hand. Recent examples include the Israel at 70 Mission, the Flavors of Israel Mission, and Honeymoon Israel, as well as educational trips for day school students and young adults through Masa Israel Journey, Birthright, and Onward Israel.
Repair Our World

We respond in times of emergency and help people rebuild in the wake of natural or man-made disasters. We also invest in programs and services that provide a strong safety net during times of personal crises.

SUPPORTING VICTIMS OF HATE
When terror and tragedy hit our community, we respond.

• Showing we are stronger than hate: We brought together rabbis, priests, and imams, along with more than 1,500 community members from across Greater Cleveland, for a vigil to honor the victims and families of the Tree of Life Synagogue shooting in Pittsburgh, and raise a collective voice against hatred anywhere.

• Providing relief that helps repair: To help our neighbors in Pittsburgh begin repairing the wounds created by the largest attack on the Jewish community in United States history, Jewish Cleveland immediately stepped up to provide funds critical to the community-wide relief efforts.

CARING FOR THOSE IN NEED
When community members’ safety is at risk, we plan for individualized, comprehensive, and wrap-around care.

• Offering a safe space to those seeking shelter: Each year, Jewish women and children seeking a haven from domestic violence and homelessness turn to JFSAs Hebrew Shelter Home for shelter, kosher meals, and counseling.

• Supplying more to those in need: Launched in 2016 as a kosher food affiliate of the Greater Cleveland Food Bank for those living in poverty, the Cleveland Chesed Center now also provides families with household supplies, furniture, and clothing—all while respecting their dignity and privacy.

HELPING PEOPLE LIVE JEWISHLY
We help enable those around the world who wish to live Jewishly by providing support and resources needed to escape persecution.

• Finding a place they can call home: Through the support of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), we help thousands of Jewish Ukrainians displaced by war start a new life with rent assistance, winter relief, and more.

• Making Aliyah: Each year, through the work of our beneficiary agency, The Jewish Agency for Israel (JAFI), we help thousands of Jews from around the world make Aliyah to Israel in order to escape rising anti-Semitism, political conflict, and economic unrest.
1,500 community members from across Greater Cleveland came together for a vigil to honor the victims and families of the Tree of Life Synagogue shooting in Pittsburgh.

1,591 nights of shelter have been provided by Hebrew Shelter Home to Jewish women and their children fleeing domestic violence.

30,000 people have made Aliyah with our help – both those fleeing anti-Semitism and persecution, and those who chose to put down roots in our homeland.
Our FEDERATION has one goal: to make life in the Jewish community better today and even stronger in the future.

2. Includes Centennial Initiative grants.
3. From the annual Campaign after deducting fundraising cost of under 8.8 percent, one of the lowest overhead costs of any charitable organization in Ohio.
4. Includes funding for school security.
5. JFSA allocation includes Holocaust survivor support.
6. $292,000 of additional security grants paid directly to agencies are included elsewhere.

* The Fund for the Jewish Future is a partnership of communal agencies, synagogues, and schools that develop and implement programs to dramatically enhance our community’s Jewish educational system. The Fund is administered by the Jewish Education Center of Cleveland and received an allocation from the 2018 Campaign for Jewish Needs to support teacher training, enhanced technology, and educational opportunities for students, including those who have special needs. The Fund also provides local synagogues with more than $1 million in educational programs and services.
