Jewish Federation OF CLEVELAND

HERE FOR GOOD

2022
ANNUAL REPORT

we were there ...

... when the war in Ukraine erupted in February 2022.

Your Federation and global partners Jewish Agency for Israel (JAFI) and American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC) immediately mobilized to deliver humanitarian aid to Jews and their neighbors in Ukraine, and those fleeing the country. This includes securing evacuations, providing housing, clothing, medication, and so much more.

One year into the crisis, this lifesaving care continues. Our ability to mobilize quickly is based on our vast, preexisting social service and Jewish community infrastructure in Ukraine, professionals and local volunteer corps, and partnerships with local European Jewish communities. To date, more than 500,000 people have received humanitarian relief.

We are taught that we are responsible for one another (Kol Yisrael arevim zeh la-zeh) - that when one Jew suffers, all Jews suffer. Jewish Cleveland's ongoing support of Ukraine continues our community's tradition of being HERE FOR GOOD whenever and wherever conflict arises.

65,000 people were supported in making aliyah.

500,000+ Ukrainian refugees received vital necessities such as food, medicine, and shelter.

$5.6 million raised from Cleveland's Ukraine Ethiopia Emergency Rescue Fund.

we were there ...

... when research showed a definitive increase in Alzheimer's disease and other dementias.

Started in 2019, Caregiving with Confidence is a program that supports affected families by providing wrap-around services through Jewish Family Service Association (JFSA) – including care navigation, training and support for caregivers, and access to a dedicated geriatrician. This program helps caregivers like Ben* care for his 84-year old mother Martha,* a Holocaust Survivor who has dementia.

After noticing signs of memory loss and other symptoms, Ben called Federation's Access Jewish Cleveland service, which connected him with JFSA. Martha and her family met with a care navigator, who listened to Martha's concerns about losing her independence. Although she agreed to "try out" the services to make her family happy, Martha warmed to the home health aide. Through this relationship, Martha now has home cleaning services, home delivered meals, a medical alert system, transportation services, and a geriatrician – all while fulfilling her wish to stay in her home.

200+ individuals with dementia and their families are being helped through the Caregiving with Confidence program.

600+ Holocaust Survivors are living in Jewish Cleveland and nearly 100 now receive homecare services.

33% increase in individuals who visited Access Jewish Cleveland website from 2021 to 2022.

name has been changed for confidentiality*

we were there ...

... when Jews around the world needed help.

When Ethiopian Jews were finally able to make aliyah – after decades of waiting – we were there alongside the Jewish Agency for Israel and the Israeli government to help them make the journey and get settled in their new home. In total, over 92,000 Ethiopian Jews are now living in Israel. At the same time, there are approximately 13,000 people living in what is referred to as Ethiopia’s “community in waiting.”

In 2022 we were still there helping approximately 3,000 more Ethiopian Jews reunite with relatives in Israel.

Once in Israel, the new immigrants (olim) enter absorption centers as they transition to Israeli society. They are aided by the Israeli government and our partners at the Jewish Agency, as well as through the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee’s Parents and Children Together literacy program, first funded by the Cleveland Federation.

3,000 Ethiopian Jews were reunited with relatives in Israel last year.

29 absorption centers helped set up Israel’s newest citizens for success.

145,000+ first- and second-generation Ethiopian Jews now live in Israel.

we were there ...

... when the earliest signs of a resurgence in antisemitism appeared.

Since launching in 2013, the Jewish Federation of Cleveland and its security provider – JFC Security, LLC – have been working closely with local, state, and federal law enforcement to help keep Jewish Cleveland safe, open, and welcoming in the face of rising antisemitism.

Over the years, JFC Security has become a nationally recognized leader in communal security – known for its forward-thinking approach to safety protocols for synagogues, schools, and other Jewish organizations; community training; coordination with law enforcement; and implementing state-of-the-art technology.

In 2022, JFC Security launched a new, technology-based community monitoring system that is directly linked to a 24-hour emergency communications center. The system, the first of its kind in the United States for a faith-based community, utilizes more than 1,100 sophisticated, 360-degree view security cameras and 26 automated license plate readers to provide a live feed to the communications center, where trained security personnel watch for suspicious behavior or anomalies to typical day-to-day activities.

80+ locations across the Greater Cleveland Jewish community currently receive security coverage.

1,500+ community members have received security training.

50+ highly trained, licensed JFC Security officers help watch over Jewish Cleveland.

... because you are here.

Dear Friends,

Thank you.

Because of you and your steadfast commitment to each other, our community, and our people, we were there to help.

From the humanitarian crisis in Europe caused by the war in Ukraine to the growing concerns about the mental health of our teens here at home. From rampant antisemitism and growing violence towards Jews across North America to increasing tensions surrounding Israel.

From educating the next generation to caring for those who came before us. From celebrating our traditions and culture to helping to keep Jewish Cleveland safe and strong. And so much more!

Whenever and wherever needed, we were there – because you are here. You are the constant that enables us to address immediate needs and longer-term opportunities year after year after year.

Throughout this report you will find different examples of the many ways you are helping make life better in Cleveland, Israel, and around the world. Together, we are truly HERE FOR GOOD.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees and the professional staff of the Jewish Federation of Cleveland, we want to express our deepest appreciation to local law enforcement – and our security provider JFC Security, LLC – for all they do to help keep our Northeast Ohio community safe. We also are forever indebted to our beneficiary agencies and local day schools for their tireless commitment to serving our community. Again, thank you for all you do to make Jewish Cleveland so special.
